“Open Doors” - From the Pastor

I've been thinking about Open Doors recently. On Saturday, April 27th, six of Central's youth and some parents joined me on a trip to Moravian Open Door in New York City. Here's a bit about the history of Moravian Open Door; “Beginning in 1968, the Coffee Pot drop-in shelter at First Moravian Church at the corner of Lexington Avenue and 30th Street served as many as 200 of New York City's homeless citizens each day. With a pressing need for more shelter, in 1984 a small committee of Moravians, through the support of the Eastern District of the Moravian Church, incorporated Moravian Open Door, renovated an abandoned NY owned building, and in 1987 dedicated their new facility on 347 E. 18th St. in Manhattan. For over 35 years, Moravian Open Door has served older adults in transitional homeless setting with case management and others services.”

Our youth brought, served and ate lunch with the residents and helped them with a craft project that afternoon. As we visited, we also opened a door of our own by getting a chance to form relationships with people who outwardly might seem different than our own youth. Many of us might wonder, “What is a formerly homeless person like?”

What did we find out? The residents of Moravian Open Door are as diverse and wonderful and different as anyone we would meet anywhere. We enjoyed conversations about our churches, and I watched as youth colored and chatted with the residents, opening a door to see them as fellow human beings. These experiences teach our young people (and all of us) the importance of opening doors to allow relationships between people of different backgrounds to grow and develop.

I think about opening doors in other ways as well. I often hear about when our volunteers or staff are cleaning, practicing or working in the sanctuary or chapel that they will hear a knock on the door. They share about the wonderful experiences of opening the door to a visitor, sharing a bit about our worship space and our faith history (Thanks especially to Becky and Richard as they practice and rehearse for opening the doors to guests!). We are working toward opening more doors as we prepare for more visitors in our midst with the possibility of a World Heritage designation and I love the title that the Herrnhut community uses to welcome visitors: “Guest Ministry”. We welcome guests with our Christian hospitality not knowing where our paths will intersect again or what a visit to Central will develop for their own faith journey.

Finally, I love to think about Open Doors in a world that is so filled with conversations around walls, borders and boundaries that keep people not only physically apart, but also convince us that we are fundamentally different from others. As we celebrate Pride Month this June, I am thrilled to serve a community that has been a welcoming place for members of our LGBTQ community for years and continues to welcome us each Sunday with these words; “however we identify,” Central is a place for all of God's wonderfully created children. I pray that Central will continue to be a place of Open Doors, Hearts and Minds in a world that so desperately needs to be in active and loving conversation with each other.

With blessings, Pastor Janel

Celebration of Juneteenth & Guest Preacher

Central's Racial Justice Committee encourages us to learn more about Juneteenth and participate in the many programs being planned in the Lehigh Valley.

Juneteenth (short for "June Nineteenth") marks the day when federal troops arrived in Galveston, Texas in 1865 to take control of the state and ensure that all enslaved people be freed. The troops' arrival came a full two and a half years after the signing of the Proclamation Emancipation. Juneteenth honors the end to slavery in the United States and is considered the longest-running African American holiday. On June 17, 2021, it officially became a federal holiday.

For additional information about events occurring in the Lehigh Valley go to <https://juneteenthlv.org/>.

We are excited to welcome the Rev. Mark Breland, pastor at Lititz Moravian Church, to preach on Sunday, June 16th. Pastor Mark is married to his wife, Dee, and has three sons. He grew up in the Second Moravian Church in Indianapolis, Indiana. He was ordained in 1990 and has served as pastor of the Redeemer Moravian Church in Philadelphia, as a team pastor at the Lake Mills Moravian Church Wisconsin and the Haverford and Second Moravian Churches in Indianapolis. He has been pastor at Lititz Moravian since 2007.

A Double Installation!

On April 7th, it was announced that Pastor Janel, previously serving as pastor for congressional care and community outreach at Central had accepted the call to serve as Senior Pastor beginning April 8th. On May 5th, it was announced that our student pastor Josh Follweiler had accepted a one-year call to serve as Central's Associate Pastor. Josh will be ordained on June 9th. We are so excited to celebrate with both Pastor Janel and (soon-to-be) Pastor Josh on Sunday, June 23rd as both are installed in their new roles. A reception will follow.

A New Associate Pastor of Central Called!

We had a day of celebrations on Sunday, May 5th; an infant baptism, welcoming 15 new members and the announcement that our student pastor Josh Follweiler accepted a call to serve as Associate Pastor at Central Church for a one-year appointment. The Joint Board unanimously approved this unique call which was the result of a cooperative effort between the Southern Province and the Eastern District Executive Board. Pastor Janel shared these remarks; "I am thrilled to be serving alongside my friend and colleague Josh for another year as he takes the role as Central's Associate Pastor. It has been wonderful to watch Josh grow as a student pastor both at Calvary and Central Moravian. Josh is both comfortable and skilled at the diverse settings that calls a pastor. He is wonderful at relating to older adults, and already has fit in so well with our staff. Josh shares new energy and ideas while also appreciating Moravian traditions and customs which makes him ideal for our church community."

Josh will formally begin his role as Associate Pastor on Tuesday, May 28th and we are planning a joint installation on Sunday, June 23rd to install both Pastor Janel as Senior Pastor and Josh as Associate Pastor. In addition, Josh will be ordained as a deacon in the Moravian Church on Sunday, June 9th in his home church of Mayodan Moravian Church, Mayodan, NC. If you would like to watch Josh's ordination on June 9th at 3 p.m, please go to <https://zoom.us/join> and enter 368 619 063. You should be let into the Zoom to watch live. Josh's email at Central is josh@centralmoravianchurch.org. Welcome Josh!

Welcoming Our Newest Members

On Sunday, May 5th, following a four week inquirers' classes, Central was excited to welcome in 15 new members; through the reaffirmation of faith, we welcomed Linda and Paul deVries, Elizabeth Ellis, Dolores Synder, Lawrence Olejay, Jeff Faubert, Kristin Volchansky, Alexandra McCay, Barbara Vernooy, Robert Homyak, George Mowers, Charlene Mowers, and through the transfer of new members, Betsy Miller, Rick and Mollie Santee. Here's a brief description about our new members - please welcome them as you are able!

Linda deVries has come back to Central after singing with the choir at Moravian College and joined the choir again. As a newly retired music teacher, she enjoys local volunteering and has joined with her husband Paul who is still working for St. Luke's Hospital as a systems and cloud engineer.

Beth Ellis has recently moved to Bethlehem and Moravian Village following the passing of her husband and began attending Central with her lifelong friends, Dick and Judy Williams.

Jeff Faubert was first introduced to the Moravian Church as a member of Palmer Moravian. He and his fiancé Kristin will be married in the Old Chapel on January. 4, 2025.

Kristin Yolchansky, fiancé to Jeff, is the advocacy director for Action Together and In this Together NEPA, fostering community and progressive policies in northeast PA.

Robert Homyak is a high school student at Gillingham Charter School in Pottsville, but look forward to being more involved when he attends Moravian University next year with a focus in history.

Alexandra McCay, or Alex is the daughter of Central member Beth and Michael Schlener. She and her husband TJ have a 1.5 year old son, Beau, and works in software sales.

Betsy Miller is returning to membership at Central after 38 years of ordained ministry in the Moravian Church, the last 13 serving as President of the Provincial Elders' Conference of the Moravian Church Northern Province. She enjoys singing with Central's choir.

George Mowers served on Central's staff for over 20 years as our Financial Secretary, and has enjoyed relating to Central with his wife Charlene and her Moravian family.

Charlene Donchez Mowers joins George's excitement at finally joining Central as a member after being a part of the Moravian community since her childhood at the Academy, working as the Executive Director of the Moravian Museum for 23 years and being instrumental in the process of working for Bethlehem and the Moravian Church settlements to be included as a World Heritage designation.

Lawrence Olejar, or Larry, was introduced to Central by his grandmother Litty Hado, and looks forward to being more active in our history and interfaith events.

Mollie Santee, Executive Director of Morningstar Living Foundation at Morningstar Living (Moravian Hall Square and Heritage Village in Nazareth) joins with her husband Rick Santee, a lawyer whose firm is located in Bethlehem. Rick and Mollie have been active in the Moravian Church for many years, serving locally and on provincial levels.

Dolores Synder joins from Moravian Houses as she was looking for a church family within walking distance and loves listening to our choir.

Barbara Vernooy, from Middletown NY, found us after her life-long church closed in 2017 and has become active in the Racial Justice committee. She is thrilled to be able to worship virtually and occasionally making the trip down for in-person worship.

Signing the Big Book

At every new members' reception, we have to remember to bring the "Big Book" over to the Sanctuary for the new members to sign. What is the "Big Book" - besides an old, big and very heavy book? It is the Moravian Covenant For Christian Living (then called the Brotherly Agreement) that Moravians have been agreeing to try and follow since the early days of the 18th century Herrnhut, Germany community.

On May 12, 1727, it was adopted by the Moravian Church in Herrnhut and shared with the small groups that Count Zinzendorf tried to nurture as a way that they would be able to begin to build relationships and community. Most of the Covenant deals with the Christian life, and since it is in terms of everyday life that the Christian witness is often most effectively borne, the document is subtitled “Principles by Which We Live and Bear Our Witness.” We emphasize to our new members that this is not a statement of belief but a statement of the ways we are committing to carrying out the witness of our Christian faith in our everyday life. Essentially, we are signing that we will try our best to live our faith in how we live! The current version of the Moravian Covenant for Christian Living that our new members sign dates back to 1851 with the signature of Simon Rau.

New Sanctuary and Chapel Tours and World Heritage UNESCO Updates

World Heritage Site has certainly been the buzz phrase for some time around our campus! Excitement, research, and much, much hard work has gone into the preparation of some of our Moravian historic buildings, including Central’s Sanctuary and Old Chapel to be recognized as part of a transnational Moravian Church Settlements World Heritage UNESCO site.

What is UNESCO? The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization is a specialized agency of the United Nations with the aim of promoting world peace and security through international cooperation in education, arts, sciences and culture.

If selected, we would join with Gracehill Moravian Church in Northern Ireland as well as Herrnhut Moravian Church in Germany (and their historic Moravian buildings) in this recognition. Christiansfeld Moravian Church settlement in Denmark already is designated a World Heritage UNESCO site.

To keep you up to date, here’s what we know so far. Our World Heritage Council, which previously included the late Rt. Rev. Hopeton Clennon, now includes Central’s representatives Diane Shaw, chair of the our History Committee and Rev. Janel Rice, as our Senior Pastor. They have also invited the Rt. Rev. Chris Giesler to join the council as a representative of world-wide bishops. We continue to meet monthly in preparation for a planned decision by the end of July. Pastor Janel has been also meeting with the pastors of the Gracehill and Herrnhut Moravian churches to share ideas about ways for our three faith communities to be prepared, and if designated, celebrate the World Heritage UNESCO status as faith communities.

Here at Central, we have fulfilled a goal of the 2022 Strategic Plan in starting the World Heritage Readiness task force. Regardless of the achievement of the World Heritage Status, we feel strongly that we want to expand the ways that guests can be welcomed to learn more about our history, architecture/buildings, and the living story of our 21st century ministries. Here are our plans starting this summer:

- 1. Beginning this June, every Friday: Old Chapel Friday Open House and Daily Text Readings, 12 - 1 p.m. Volunteers will welcome visitors, share in an explanation of the Moravian Daily Text and reading at 12:15 p.m. and offer a brief tour.
- 2. Beginning this July, every Saturday: Sanctuary tours. Similar to the tours piloted on Mother’s Day weekend in May, we will begin Saturday tours of the Sanctuary, Time TBD

Excited? Want to help? Currently, we are discerning if we have enough visitors to expand these tours beyond the hours and dates we have planned. We would love to have you welcome visitors and also (if desired) serve as a tour guide. Talk with Diane Shaw or Pastor Janel for more information.

The Moravian History Store at the Star and Candle Shoppe

We are pleased to announce that the Moravian History Store of the Moravian Archives will partner with Central Moravian Church's Star and Candle Shoppe for the 2024 Advent and Christmas season.

Archives staff members, Kelly Givens and Emma Horning will provide History Store items for sale and manage the shop for four weekends, beginning on the day after Thanksgiving, November 29, and continuing each weekend through the week after Christmas.

In addition, Central Church will be offering its own traditional gifts such as paper stars and beeswax candles. Both the Fundraising and the History Committees of the church will have items for sale, as well.

The Moravian Archives was a popular vendor at the Star and Candle Shoppe in the 2019 season. We look forward to having the Archives return in this new, expanded role.

Meet Olivia Teel, Our City Forester

Did you know that the City of Bethlehem has a City Forester? What is the job description for a City Forester? Is it a desk job? Or is she out checking on trees in the neighborhoods, parks, and city streets?

Join us on Tuesday, June 11th at 7:30 p.m. in Nitschmann Hall (C. E. building) for an informative meeting about how we care for trees in the City of Bethlehem. There will be an opportunity for questions and answers.

Blood Donors Needed

Miller Keystone Blood Bank is always in need of your blood. Please consider contacting them today to make an appointment and mention 0194 to credit Central Moravian Church. <https://www.giveapint.org/>

Platelets are Always Needed! With a usable lifespan of only seven days, platelets are in constant demand for life-saving treatments. You can safely donate platelets every 8 days, up to 24 times per year, and it is up to people like YOU to ensure we have enough platelets for patients in our local hospitals. For more information, contact Diane Kessler, <https://www.giveapint.org/> or 1-800-B-A-Donor (223-6667).

Special June Offering Envelopes

Esperanza for Bethlehem (June 2): Your donation supports our Moravian ministry on the Southside of Bethlehem, providing bilingual worship at 10:30 a.m. each Sunday. After services, a small amount of food is distributed to members in need. Pastor Rhonda hopes to expand food offerings in the future. This summer she plans to offer a vacation bible school including a meal to provide a safe environment for children. Pastor Rhonda can be reached at ronduza@gmail.com; 484-895-5582.

Preservation Fund (June 30): The Preservation Fund is used for capital project expenses including major repairs and restorations to the interior and exterior of buildings and grounds. Only interest income from this Fund is designated for capital projects. Our long-term goal is to increase this fund, thereby increasing the income to perform the upkeep of our precious historic buildings.

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle

- Ceiling fans work! You can set your air conditioner 4 degrees warmer and cut your energy costs by using a ceiling fan.
- Learn more about rainforests and their importance to the health of Planet Earth. For starters, check out <https://rainforests.mongabay.com>
- Plastic pots and plastic trays (for flower pots) are unwelcome at the Bethlehem Recycling Center. If you have too many, ask local garden centers and nurseries if they would like them back. Many will gladly accept them for reuse.
- One person's junk is another person's treasure. Read (or re-read) Junk Day on Juniper Street, by Lilian Moore. Then organize a 'junk day' with your friends and neighbors. Or join a Buy Nothing group. You will be amazed at how those items you no longer want will find a 'good home' elsewhere. Visit: <https://buynothingproject.org>
- Pour ½ cup baking soda down your kitchen drain, followed by ½ cup vinegar, and then some boiling water. This combination breaks down fatty acids that block drains, and it keeps the drain smelling fresh.

Prayers for Eastern District Synod

We are looking forward to welcoming the Eastern District Synod to our neighborhood as we meet on June 26 - 29 on the South campus of Moravian University. We will be offering tours during Friday's free time at synod. Please keep Central's delegates and pastors in your prayers as they attend Synod: Karen Brady, Brenda Hoelman, Steve Krawiec, Becky Lepore and Camie Modjadidi.
